Daho will play three of its all-star men in Sam Baldwin, Harold Castle and Walter Macfarlane. Arthur Rice will also be in the lineup and is rated as excellent player but unfortunately has not been in the saddle much of late. He is a deshing, hard riding player though and with the other will surette present a formulable polo team.

The team though will greatly miss the services of Wulter Dillingham both in the saddle and as a coach. Its is without a doubt one of the greatest poloiste in the world and his playing in the past has done much to keep Onhu well up among the leading polo aggregations.

It was indeed commendable for our friend, the Prince, to have arranged the interview in the first place, but I hold that it was treason to the interests of the Territory for him to have cancelled the interview on his own responsibility.

Tariff Change Murts All.

'In the beginning, the opinion seemed to prevail that the removal of the sugar tariff or the partial removal thereof, would only injure a few of the large plantation owners, but I think that at this time the minds of the rank and file have changed and that all realize that the hardest times Hawaii has ever seen or will see will come through an attack on the sugar interest, and that those hard times will be felt most keenly by the laboring classes in our community.

The Prince is unfriendly—admittedly so—to the sugar interests of the Territory, and I hold that no man should be chosen to represent any community who is an enemy to its principal business interest. If I were a member of congress and was willing that the prosperity of my district should be assaulted—as the prosperity of this Territory is being assaulted by those who are unfriendly to its principal industry. I would leave congress, for I believe that would be the only honorable course to pursue. Tariff Change Hurts All.

"He challenges me and my support-ers to tell what harm he is doing by non-attendance at Washington. He calls non-attendance at Washington. He calls on us to name bills that have been neglected, legislation that is being abandoned, thereby intimating that he is doing his full duty, although absent from the seat of government. This, my fellow citizens, is first-class evidence that he intends to continue his present program, even though you re-elect him to congress, and I call on you to open your eyes wide and see the attuation just as it is; and without unfriendliness to him and without bitterness to the Hawaiian people, see to it that one is chosen who, when absent from duty or when indifferent to the public interest, will not seek to justify that absence and indifference, but would at least have some excuse for it and make promise of more close attention to business in the future. ness in the future.

No More Lobbyists. "Time was, prior to the present administration, when it was not considered had form for a man to be stationed at Washington to represent large business enterprises in different pertions of the United States, but unfortunately for Kuhio, and for Hawali, the fight in the last session of congress on the question of the tariff became so bitter that President Wilson and his administration saw to it that all men in private smallor who sought in any way to influsaw to it that all men in private employ who sought in any way to influence legislation in Washington, were dubbed 'lobbyists' and regarded as 'undesirables'—as men who have no vroper place in that atmosphere. This situation of affairs, I say, is unfortunate for my friend Kuhio, and if he is continued in congress, as the Delegate from the Territory of Hawaii, it means that he, as the Delegate to Congress, must do all the work for Hawaii, and that he cannot in the future depend upon receiving help from persons who may he stationed there, Is representing the district and doing the things that are necessary to safeguard the business interests thereof.

DESCRIPTION OF THE LA

Lowis in First Speaker

The first speaker of the evening was Abe Lewis, Jr., it being his first public appearance in the campaign as a speaker, and he made a hit by the concise way in which he set forth his facts as to why he is supporting Charles A. Bice for nomination and election as Delegate to Congress. He accentuated the facts that the Republicans who secures the nomination next Saturday is the man who will have to lead the Republican Party to victory in November.

ber.

Mr. Lewis spoke strongly on the record made by Mr. Rice in his ten years in the Territorial legislature and pledged that Rice would attend to business in Washington if elected, and be believed that Rice would be the next representative of Hawaii in the Nation's capital. He also stated that Rice would be a 'harmonizer' and spoke of what he would accomplish in this

of what he would accomplish in this respect.

Mr. Lewis compared the Delegate to Congress as the agent of the people, and asked the audience how they would like an agent of theirs who was expected to attend to their property interests to remain 5000 miles away and neglect his trust. He insisted that Rice is well equipped to represent Hawaii at Washington and he asked all voters present to give this Republican caudidate their suffrage on Saturday. He was greeted with a burst of applicance.

He asserted that no employer can afford to employ a man who does not earn his wages, and stated that Kuhio for two years, has not "been on the job." Continuing, he said: "It is your duty to go to the polls on Saturday and cast your vote for Charles A. Rice." (Applause.)

and applause following him in both his addresses.

"Kuhie wants to know what he could do at Washington," remarked the speaker. "Why, we have several thousand soldiers here; now, why could not the Delegate work in congress for military reads around this Island? (Great applause.) I believe now that a man like Charles A. Rice, when hy goes to congress, can get such a road for us. '. (Great applause.)
